

It is the duty of our democratic government to regulate media as to prevent the control over everything we see, hear and read by by a few conglomerates. As a voting citizen I urge you to vote against further degradation to government regulation of the media. We have the right to a diverse media that does not try to manage the public.